CODE OF CONDUCT

Meet You at the Polls participants are expected to abide by the MYATP Code of Conduct. Our gatherings are not political, they are an opportunity for the Body of Christ to come together before our Father in heaven to intercede on behalf of our country and the upcoming elections. We are not gathering to alienate, agitate or offend. The overt public expression of political viewpoints should be avoided. That being said, we will lift up the name of Jesus and will not hesitate to proclaim His word and His values, though that may prove offensive to some.

Our guiding scripture in this matter is Romans 12:14-21

> Bless those who persecute you, bless and do not curse. Rejoice with those who rejoice and weep with those who weep. Be of the same mind toward one another; do not be haughty in mind, but associate with the lowly. Do not be wise in your own estimation. Never pay back evil for evil to anyone. Respect what is right in the sight of all men. If possible, so far as it depends on you, be at peace with all men . . . if your enemy is hungry, feed him, and if he is thirsty, give him a drink, for in doing so you will heap burning coals on his head. Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

We DO NOT seek media attention, nor are we gathering for the sake of being seen. Frankly, it would be best if the media stayed away. If they do show up, be respectful and courteous. Do not speak or act in a way that would discredit our Savior. Whatever you say, pray first and say it in love.

We don't anticipate problems, and no unpleasant confrontations were reported to have occurred at any of our 2018 meetings. Nevertheless, if you expect a sizable crowd to show up at your flagpole, we would suggest having one or two law-enforcement officers on hand.

The Covid situation changes from one day and one locality to the next. We therefore advise MYATP participants to comply with local, state and federal guidelines regarding masks and social distancing. Be respectful, deferential and Christ-like towards all!